CANDIDATE SURVEY ISSUE

From Fr. Frank Pavone, National Director, Priests for Life

Excerpt from "A Grave Mistake and an Abiding Hope"

...It would be a serious mistake for people to think that this election [November 2008] means the pro-life movement has no political power. All politics is local. Political power is about people. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was once told that given the political realities, civil rights legislation would be impossible to pass. "We'll just have to see about that," he replied. And the civil rights movement was born, stirring the hearts of the people to lead the nation to the victory of justice.

So it is with our movement. The vast majority of Americans are pro-life. They will fight abortion on the local level, opening pregnancy centers and closing abortion mills, activating their Churches and educating their children, proclaiming the message in the media and demonstrating in the streets. The pro-life movement is winning this battle in the hearts and minds of the American people, as opinion polls show and as the shrinking number of abortion mills and abortion providers prove.

Political races are always a swinging of the pendulum. As soon as you win, you begin to lose, and as soon as you lose, you begin the ascent again to winning. In the next two election cycles (2010 and 2012) the pro-life movement will make up for political ground lost in this one....

Great Conference with Different Perspective

The 7th annual Pro-Life Science & Technology Conference will be held Saturday, September 11, 2010, 9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m., Dayton Engineers Club, 110 E. Monument Ave., Dayton, Ohio. Hear pro-life professionals speak from their areas of expertise of exciting work to protect innocent human life from conception to natural death. Registration $50 regular, $25 students; includes continental breakfast and lunch; scholarships available. (www.prolifetechnology.org)

Responsible Voting

This key issue includes summarized candidate surveys for the November 2010 election. All candidate surveys are posted in full as received on the CincinnatiRightToLife.org web site (or call our office should you need a copy).

Note the responses to the questions, covering a wide range of issues affecting human life from conception to natural death. Now more than ever men and women are needed at all levels of government to take a solid stand for the Sanctity of Human Life.

Remember...

*Voters don't decide issues,
they decide who will decide issues.*

October Gala for Cincinnati's Pro-Life Community

Abby Johnson, a new articulate voice for the pro-life movement, will be the keynote speaker at Right to Life of Greater Cincinnati's annual Evening for Life, October 21, 2010 at Xavier University's Schiff Conference Center.

Abby Johnson quit her job. That simple act has become national news because Abby, 29, was the director of a Planned Parenthood clinic in Texas who said she experienced a "change of heart" while participating in an abortion procedure. Johnson has now joined a group called Coalition for Life, which prays outside the clinic where she worked. Come hear the rest of the story!

This year's Life Award recipient is Brian Hurley, attorney in two local cases against Planned Parenthood. Emcee and pro-life leader himself is Brian Patrick, host Son Rise Morning Show, Sacred Heart Radio/EWTN, 740AM. Reserve early, form on page 7, or online at CincinnatiRightToLife.org! Sponsorship opportunities are available.

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all Men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness."

JUDICIAL RACES

- Which former US president's political philosophy best matches your own?
(Gerald Ford, Jimmy Carter, Bill Clinton, George H. W. Bush, Ronald Reagan, George W. Bush, Barack H. Obama, Other)
- Which US Supreme Court Justice's legal philosophy best matches your own?
(Roberts, Stevens, Scalia, Kennedy, Thomas, Ginsburg, Breyer, Alito, Sotomayor, Other)
- Rate your judicial philosophy regarding the U.S. Constitution on a scale of 1-10 with "living/evolving document" being 1 and "strict constructionist" being a 10.
- In Roe v. Wade, 410 U.S. 113 (1973), the U.S. Supreme Court recognized a "right to privacy" under the Constitution that includes abortion. The Constitution does not include this right. (Agree, Disagree, Undecided)
- Judges should refrain from "legislating from the bench." The translation of public policy into law and the creation, extension, modification or limitation of citizens' rights (and government authority) are properly within the province of the legislative, not judicial, branch of government. (Agree, Disagree, Undecided)
- An unborn child is biologically human at every stage of his or her biological development, beginning at fertilization. (Agree, Disagree, Undecided)
- The law should be applied to pro-life demonstrators in the same manner as is applied to environmental, anti-war and labor demonstrators. (Agree, Disagree, Undecided)
- There is no provision in the current Ohio Constitution intended to require the use of public funds for abortion. (Agree, Disagree, Undecided)
- List all organizations to which you have contributed time or money in the past four years.
